No Flag but the Old Flag—[illegible] White and Blue
With the stars [illegible]
[illegible]
Whose blood [illegible]

MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER [illegible] 1864

News of To-Day.

The wires have come to our relief in an excessive flow of words, without giving us any positive information of every important interest.

Wheeler did not drive Kilpatrick at all, but got handsomely whipped instead and after dishing up what the rebels call exciting news from Sherman, and a promise to whip him before he really reaches the coast they end by themselves informing us that Sherman had reached within five miles of Savannah all safe, and we shall soon hear what he is doing.

The expedition under Gregg to the south of Petersburg and Richmond to the old battle ground of Stony creek resulted in great loss to the rebels in destruction of the Weldon road, cutting their communications and defeat of all the rebel forces he met, and they returned safe to camp.

Another expedition under Warren seems to have marched toward Weldon, N C judging by the dispatches, though we have no particulars of its destination given by authority. The rebels are anticipating soon an attack on Richmond and there is a rumor that Petersburg is to be evacuated, which may be hastened by the cutting off of a portion of the freight communication south of Richmond by the late raid of Gregg. The rebels themselves say the Dutch Gap canal can be made available any time now in a few hours. The question of Convention of all the States has been introduced in the rebel Congress by Foote, and the Legislature of North Carolina has entertained a proposition to send Commissioners to Washington to treat for peace. There was considerable fighting of skirmishers near Richmond and our whole army near Nashville was engaged more or less every day, but there has been nothing important done. [illegible] supposed to be trying to reinforce Hood, but Breckridge [illegible] to block up the way with a [illegible] and superior force.

A Moving of the Waters

It is at least some satisfaction in the midst of civil war and rebellion to be able to see some indications of the end [illegible] and to believe that it is not forever that strife will distract the Nation's harmony. Straws show which way the wind blows, and Legislatures are not the least certain indication of the tendencies of States.

At the outset of the [illegible] movement North Carolina and Alabama were loath to dissolve the Federal compact and each were literally torn from the Union by a pressure they could not resist. Among the mountains of both of these States and Georgia, there has lingered a spark of love for the Old Flag and the old Union, even when the clouds of war have lowered the heaviest and we must remember that in the Convention that attempted to unmoor the ancient fastenings by which Alabama was bound to us the mountaineers, who dwelt in the counties of the North voted against secession to the hour of the passage of the act.

Jerry Clemens—of well won Congressional fame—clung then to the old flag he had fought under, and yielded to the popular movement most unwillingly. We cannot believe his heart was ever in it, and have read that he returned to his allegiance when our armies had possession of Northern Alabama. To day North Carolina is agitating in her legislative halls the question of negotiating peace, and Georgia has shown a restlessness under the dictatorship of Davis not unpleasant to behold, while the Legislature of Alabama, called expressly together to devise ways and means to protect the State from Federal invasion, has met, listened to resolutions offered not in harmony with Confederate ideas, and then adjourned without touching upon the especial matter of public need that called them forth. The Governor of Alabama is wroth, and the Legislature receives it complacently. In the rebel Congress, Foote introduces resolutions conflicting with the pet ideas of President Davis, and favors a convention of all the States.

At this time, when Southern States are calling for conscripts between the ages of sixteen and seventy, when Sherman marches through Georgia to the Atlantic seaboard, when whole regiments are being recruited among the whites of that State for Federal armies, when Southern cruisers are swept from the seas, when Davis wails forth a cry of help, confessing the weakness of the cause of the Confederacy by admitting that full half of its soldiers have deserted its standard and to whom his appeals are ever vain, it seems but natural that State Legislatures should commence to assert some ideas of independence, and that disappointed politicians should seem dissatisfied. When the end comes, such facts as these will presage it, for long smothered though it has been, the vital spark still lives in the minds of Southern men, that time and opportunity will fan into a blaze and build up there the cause of Union.

FAIR FOR THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—The ladies of Portland wish us to extend the information to all the friends of this noble cause, that on Tuesday and Wednesday they will be in readiness to wait upon the public at Turn Verein Hall, on First street.

During the day time the Hall will be open as a sales room for numerous fancy articles, admission twenty five cents and the gentlemen are invited to call around between the hours of 12½ and [illegible] o'clock [illegible] to partake of lunch or oysters at the reasonable price of fifty cents each.

In the evenings rare entertainment will be afforded. On Tuesday there will be an Old Folk Concert and Readings by Miss Lester which will be her first appearance [illegible]

Wednesday evening there will be visited a New England kitchen, which will turn out regular Yankee fare, for a [illegible] to the hungry outsiders. [illegible] of our principal citizens will attend the kitchen in character and Miss Lester will be there [illegible] in which she is said to be admirable. Evening admission [illegible] Our ladies are very earnest in the work and deserve praise from us. They are very fortunate in having [illegible] Miss Lester who is [illegible] of the cause [illegible] Tickets will be [illegible] remember to be there [illegible]

ON BY THE [illegible] gentlemen are leaving for Washington [illegible] Judge William [illegible] at [illegible] the [illegible] that he will [illegible] of our State [illegible] our State and [illegible] our city.

On Sunday night last a party of about 5,000 rebels [illegible] crossing Cumberland river [illegible] The rest of the number [illegible] claim that the whole party had deserted from the rebel lines and were making their way home. Gen Cooper's brigade on the march from Johnsonville to Clarkesville, was terribly harrassed by guerrillas. Sixteen guerillas were captured, thirteen killed and thirty wounded. The weather is very cold. Two inches of snow fell to-night.

NEW YORK, Dec 12.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 10th says: The news from Georgia yesterday was of an exciting character. The enemy who were marching down the Ogechee river with three corps, one on the north and two on the south side, endeavoring to unite their forces met with considerable resistance from the Confederates. At last accounts they had not effected their object. They were also prevented by [illegible] the unfavorableness of the river approaches.

On the 7th the demonstrations of the Federals on the ferry on the Savannah river [illegible] became more determined. They managed to get some of their infantry across the flats in sight of the river. Here we were well prepared. Our artillery did good work. It was supposed they would be compelled to abandon the attempt from [illegible] either the lack of ammunition or inability to get their cannon into position. The Yankees made very little upon artillery. This added to the advantage of our troops. It was reported that the enemy had effected a landing on the [illegible] ago but had not been able to reach the railroad.

The Augusta Constitutionalist says: On Monday last a fight took place at Walker Bridge, on Briar Creek, twenty two miles from Augusta in which the Federals were worsted. One hundred and twenty-two Yankee prisoners have arrived at Augusta.

The Richmond Examiner of December 10th says: We learn that the force which recently went down Weldon road consisted of one entire corps besides the cavalry. Every man ought to be [illegible]

The Whig says: A good many knowing people are exercised as to the [illegible] If they have no [illegible] will of course soon get to the end of their journey. On the other hand we are inclined to believe they are better equipped than reported and that we will soon hear of the [illegible] and the destruction of Weldon. [illegible]

Needed Improvements.—It is a strange idea that a ferry line should be established, and in profitable employment for a dozen years or more, and still have no accommodations, except an ordinary flat-boat, to cross and re-cross the river at this city. There has been the most cruel treatment of animals at the Stark street landing, from year to year, and yet the place is as bad as ever. On Saturday considerable excitement was manifest among a crowd assembled there to witness a team of horses trying to pull a load of hoop poles up the bank. Finally Mr. Hogan assisted them to the top of grade with a pair of his truck horses. Two boats of rival companies are now contending for the patronage of the line, and a good way to settle the difficulty between them would be for the Commissioners, and especially the public, to vest the rights with either company that will make repairs, and furnish suitable conveniences for the accommodation of the travel. A ferry slip is not such an expensive affair, but that it could have been constructed years since, and it is a shame that it has not been, with the advantages of a profitable monopoly to base it upon. Monopolies to be charitably considered, must take in a certain ratio of improvements, otherwise they may be basely considered with propriety. The subject of ferries in this city properly comes under the latter heading, for while it is sure two of our streets have been ruined, for the accommodation of such flatboats, and remain in bad condition to this day, not one of them was ever improved for the same object. This is a matter in which the city and county are both interested, and we hope at some future time to see the County Commissioners and the Board of Councilmen take proper measures for its settlement and improvement.

A Speculation.—Much ado was made on the streets yesterday because the steamship Sierra Nevada dropped down to the Columbia river to receive her cargo, and "A Speculation" was thought of. We might perhaps think the same, if we didn't know any better, but the fact is this cold snap has lessened the water of the Willamette very materially, and it is receding too fast for Capt. Connor to run the risk of wintering at Portland. The only speculation that we can speak of, in this connection likely to pay, is the speedy construction of our dredger. A few "scoops" with that would fix the river all right, and give our people less to apprehend from sudden departures and lighterage accounts. The Julia will leave Couch's wharf at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with passengers for the steamship.

Addresses of Rev. Mr. Mingens.—Those of our citizens who visited the Churches to listen to the addresses of this gentleman yesterday, in behalf of the Christian Commission, speak in the highest terms of commendation on what they heard. The Presbyterian Church was crowded to overflowing last evening, and many were unable to gain admittance. On Saturday evening Mr. M. will address the Sunday School scholars, upon subjects connected with the Commission, when assembled at their Christmas festival in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.

Hard Aground.—The bark Sam Merritt which left this port on Friday in tow of the steamer Rescue, was sent hard aground two miles below Springville, and the last heard from was being lightered off. The accident is said to have occurred from want of power on the part of the light steamer to bear her against the winds. Another evidence in favor of suitable tug boats for this trade. The difficulties of this nature are very aggravating to the Masters of vessels. But recently the Cambridge lay at the mouth of the Columbia a long time, before she could put to sea, when a proper tug could have taken her out any day. Matters like this must be different soon.

An Important Case.—We understand the taking of the testimony in the important case of Starr vs Stark, suit in Chancery to set aside Stark's Patent to a part of the Portland Land Claim, and apply the Town Site Law, will commence to-day at the Clerk's office. There is much valuable property at stake, and quite an array of Attorneys employed. Chapman for plaintiff's, Wait & Kelly, Page & Grover, and Mr. Strong for the defendant.

Grand Holiday Raffle.—Mr. J. W. J. Pierson, the successful Agent of Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines in this city, has been projecting a grand raffle for the holidays which will be a source of much amusement to all the patrons, and much profit to a portion of them. There is to be twenty-five prizes; the first prize a carved cabinet machine, such as he sells, worth $175. Tickets will sell at $2 50 each, two hundred of them, and we hope to see every one taken, so that nothing may detract from the genuineness of the scheme.

Proceeds of the Fair.—The M. E. Church Fair, held at Turn Verien Hall last Thursday evening, netted to the ladies something near six hundred dollars. The gross receipts were a fraction over seven hundred dollars. They have on hand a quantity of materials which they propose to dispose of at an Oyster supper, to be given in a very few weeks.

Real Estate Sales.—The best evidence of the prosperity of our city is the frequent change of real estate, to persons in nearly every case for the purposes of immediate improvement. At a Sheriff's Sale of real property in this city on Saturday last several of our citizens became very much interested. A part of one lot on Front street above Montgomery, sold to A. G. Walling for 600 dollars.

A Fire Without an Alarm.—On Friday night at twelve or one o'clock a house of ill-fame was discovered to be on fire, which startled the inmates terribly, and aroused a few of the peaceable citizens, who put the fire out. An attempt was made to alarm the department, but as No. 1's bell rope could not be reached by an outsider no alarm was given. Our informant says it was a narrow escape from a disastrous conflagration.

Habeas Corpus.—The hearing of a habeas corpus case, Elizabeth Eastabrook vs. W. B. Partlow, for the custody of two children of the plaintiff, by a former husband named Olds, alleged to be restrained of their liberty by the defendant, through the instigation of said Olds, will take place before the Circuit Court, at the Court House to-day, at 3 o'clock.

Recorder's Court.—In Recorder's Court on Saturday parties were fined for riotous violent and disorderly conduct as follows: Wm. Failing $25 and costs; Ferd Gibson $20 and costs, both were committed in default of payment. Barney Burns $20 and costs, paid. On a charge of burglary, preferred against the last named individual he was discharged.

Closed for Other Boilers.—Estes & Stimson's saw mill, at the foot of Madison street in this city will be closed until the 15th of January. The boiler was tested yesterday, with hydraulic pressure, and at 130 lbs. bursted a flue. To be on the safe side and avoid accident, Mr. Estes goes to the Dalles to-day for two boilers purchased of the O. S. N. Company.

Sudden Death.—Mr. James Costello, proprietor of the Shades Saloon on Alder street, died suddenly at his residence in this city yesterday. He had been ailing for some few days, and received a fall on the frozen street on Saturday, which is supposed to have hastened his decease.

Fancy Glass Ware.—Mr. A. B. Richardson has received a splendid assortment of Bohemian glass ware and other fancy goods, per Noofa Nicola, which will be offered for sale at auction on Wednesday next. This is a rare opportunity to invest in something elegant.

The Commission Fair.—Extensive preparations are being made by the ladies for the Christian Commission Fair, which is to come off to-morrow and Wednesday evenings, at Turn Verien Hall.

Supplement.—In consequence of a press upon our advertising columns we are compelled to issue a supplement to the Daily Oregonian this morning.

Sailed.—The barkentine Jane A. Falkinburg, Capt. James Frost, sailed from San Francisco for Portland on the 9th.

A Word to the Aged.—In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effect. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits. For dyspepsia, oppression after eating, bilious cholic, wind cholic, spasms of the stomach, sick or nervous head-ache, chills and fever, tremens, prostration and all the complaints peculiar to the feebler sex, the Bitters are earnestly recommended by thousands who have witnessed their superior efficacy in such cases. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. nov12d&w

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution.—Persons of scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oct11d3m

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of Checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN
DOUBLE TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN TURBINE HAS many advantages over all other Wheels, both Turbines and Overshot.

It has competed successfully with every variety of Wheel and has always proved itself victorious.

This Wheel has been in use nearly Three Years in the States and it has NEVER MADE A FAILURE.

It is CHEAPER than an Overshot, MORE DURABLE, and will YIELD A HIGHER PER CENT. OF POWER in the same quantity of water. We have introduced five on this coast. They are now all in operation but will be in a few days. The following testimonial is from an old and experienced Millwright well known in this State:

WESTPORT, CLATSOP CO., OREGON, }
Nov. 19th 1864. }

MESSRS. LEFFEL & MYERS—Dear Sirs: We have plenty of water now and your DOUBLE TURBINE in successful operation. We are satisfied that your Wheel is fully equal if not superior to the Overshot. With the same water that the Overshot uses, we can do more work with the Turbine than with the Overshot. I have tried many Wheels which were claimed to be superior to an Overshot but yours is the first I have found. Hence we do not hesitate to recommend all the American Double Turbine as the most economical of water in our knowledge.

JOHN WEST & CO.

We desire all who want Wheels to visit the following named places and have ocular demonstration of the above facts:

John West & Co., West Port, Clatsop County, Oregon.
Lewis Love, [illegible]

LE DOYEN'S
SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK

IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you can't have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal. Being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder and ureters of the Kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

Sole Agency of Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla for the Pacific Coast.
